

Honeymoon Questionnaire

You have always dreamed of Hawaii. He's been thinking of a backpacking trip in the Himalayas (complete with Yak). Give and take, it's what marriage is all about. Sitting down and talking together about your Honeymoon trip will ensure that both of your wishes are taken into consideration. This will not only be one of the most enjoyable conversations when planning your Wedding but will result in the perfect Honeymoon for the two of you.

Take a look at the questions below, set aside some quiet time and let's get the Honeymoon conversation started.

1. What time of year will you be taking your Honeymoon? Weather considerations may have to be made for certain destinations. _____

2. How much time can you take for your Honeymoon? Is your vacation time already approved or do you have to submit a request? _____
3. What destinations have you already visited, either together or separately? Would you want to revisit any of these or visit some place new. _____

4. Is there a destination or resort that you've always wanted to visit? _____

5. How far are you willing to travel? _____
6. Do you have current passports? Yes No
